

2017 MBA Washington Visit

It's Time To Tell Our Story!

Missouri bankers will descend on our nation's Capitol on Sept. 26-29 to tell congressional leaders and regulators how the decisions made in Washington, D.C., affect the customers and communities they serve. As a new administration and Congress tackle legislation to reform the banking industry, it is imperative that we share our experiences with lawmakers and regulators. Missouri's congressional delegation and federal regulators need to hear directly from you about how their decisions affect banking services for consumers and businesses. As bankers, we have a responsibility to protect the needs of individuals and businesses in our communities. We are responsible for telling our story.
